Advanced Notice of Cost Per Visit

We use flat rate pricing and this is our cash rate. We accept cash, check, credit card and all insurances.

Payment is expected on the day that services are rendered.

If you choose to bill insurance, the dollar amount paid in office is lower than the dollar amount billed to insurance. We can submit claims on your behalf, or issue you a super bill upon request. All insurance payments are delivered directly to this office.

Patients will be notified by email and/or phone call if any monies are received from insurance payments, and will be refunded or credited, at patients discretion, to your account for future care.

All monies received are refunded or credited up to the amount paid for office visits at time of service.

Insufficient funds fees, non payable check fees are the responsibility of the payer.
